

Francesca Cole-Barnes, LCPC

Francesca Cole-Barnes, a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor, has worked in the counseling field for nearly 10 years providing trauma-focused counseling services to elementary school students and their families on the south and west sides of Chicago.

Francesca is a certified Child Parent Psychotherapist (CPP) which allows her to work with both parent and child to create a deeper, more connected, and emotionally safe relationship.

Francesca is Director of Parent and Community Engagement at JPA (Juvenile Protective Association) where the focus is to build partnerships with parents within in the communities JPA serves. Francesca is also a mental health consultant with JPA's C2K (Connect to Kindergarten) program where she works closely with teachers in Pre-K and Kindergarten to help strengthen the relationship between teacher and student.
