

Join us at JPA's "All in for Kids" Benefit - back in person after two years!

Help us celebrate over 120 years of building strong children by honoring JPA's past, applauding our current impact and looking ahead to the significant work that is planned for the future.

Your support allows us to continue working toward our mission of improving the social and emotional well-being and functioning of vulnerable children so they reach their fullest potential at home, in school, and in our communities.
